

What is God's Word doing for people in our generation? (<http://blog.gideons.org/2011/01/craig-groeschel-gideon-bible-lifechurch-tv/>)>> "Years ago, there was a Gideon distributing copies of God's Word on a college campus. He placed a copy in the hands of Craig, a young fraternity student who was on a collision course with God... It was through reading that little, green, college Testament that Craig came to know Jesus Christ and accept him as his Lord and Savior... So what became of that young college student? Today, Craig Groeschel is the 43 year-old senior pastor of LifeChurch.tv, the Edmond, Oklahoma-based congregation that Craig started out of a two-car garage in 1996... Through the LifeChurch.tv YouVersion Bible Internet site and mobile phone application that allows users to engage with Scripture in 41 translations in 22 languages, people all over the world can download free copies of the Bible. As of January 2011, the app has reached approximately 13 million downloads. Isn't it amazing to see how much impact a single copy of God's Word can make?"

(<http://blog.gideons.org/2012/08/testimonies-of-how-gods-word-has-prevented-suicide/>)>> "A young woman in Ukraine was in great despair and planned to drown herself. As she walked along the channel, a breeze was blowing and what she thought was a leaf blew up into her face. It turned out to be a page from the Psalms that had been ripped out of a Gideon-placed New Testament. She read about a merciful God and the words gave her hope, so she sought out some Christians and accepted Christ as her Savior. She now shares her testimony in churches."

(http://www.theovision.org/?testimonials\_category=changed-life-stories/)>> "I never wanted to have anything to do with church or Christians", a 40 year old farmer [from Ghana] declared. Midawa now referred to as Paul, was an idol worshiper who loathed the God of the Christians because he felt that God was foreign. For many years, he had been caged in this ideology until he had the encounter of his life when he passed by a Bible listening group session in his village. He said he heard someone talking to him in his own language and warning him strongly against all the ills he was committing. "The voice said that I should not murder, bear false witness or chase another person's wife and those were the exact deeds I was involved in", he said... When the session closed, he asked the leader for the date for the next meeting because he wanted to hear the voice again. When he visited the following week, he heard something different. He realized that the "voice" from the Audio Bible, loved him and was willing to forgive him of all his sins. He accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and personal Savior and has since been baptized. Once a fierce idol worshiper, Midawa has joined a local church and is a staunch member of the Bible listening group. "My prayer is that all who hear my story will turn from their evil ways and pay heed to God's Word", he shared."

Friend, no other resource can give you centuries' worth of endorsement as the Bible. For – the rich or the poor; lord or slave; black, white or brown; man or woman; young or old; wise or simple; believer or infidel; in the prime of life or at death's door – the Bible meets the intrinsic longing of the sincere heart! Are you responding to that longing? Embrace God's healing via His written record. What He has done for others He WILL do for you. Romans 15:4>> "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. May God bless you..."

CAN YOU TRUST THE BIBLE? (PART 5)

What are the FACTS and what are the MYTHS about this age-surviving Book?

♦ WHAT CAN THE BIBLE REALLY DO FOR ANYONE?

Friend, this Book possesses a train of testimonials comparable to no other, whether in their number or the level of satisfaction they express. If the Bible was a mere commodity for sale, the level of positive reviews would be so overwhelming that any prospective customer would have to say, "I've got to get this book!" How do we know this? Because from the very establishment of the books of Scripture, there have been testifiers to their life-enriching, life-transcending power. Contrary to today's advertising, the Bible has never needed any focus group, questionnaire, promotional samples, nor celebrity endorsement. Yet men and women, moved by an inspiration within, could not but testify on record of the goodness of this Book. These were heartfelt; these were not paid for nor staged. Read these witnesses from history to the present day and see how time and time again, without needing to change its content or image, the Bible has satisfied the greatest hungers of the soul to all classes of people...

Martin Luther (1483-1546) – German professor of theology, composer; former Catholic monk turned Reformer after discovering and reading the Bible; became the pre-eminent figure of the Protestant Reformation>> "I felt that I was born again, and that I had discovered a wide and open door, allowing me to penetrate into paradise itself. I viewed the holy Scriptures in a far different light from what I had formerly done, and through this, discovered the true way of everlasting happiness."-Christianity Demonstrated by Experience, pg.97

John Wilmot, Earl of Rochester (1647-1680) – English poet and courtier of King Charles II; former avowed debauchee, former staunch opponent of Christianity; during the last months of his life and final sickness>> "One immediate cause to which [Wilmot] ascribed his conviction, was the fifty third chapter of Isaiah, which Mr. Parsons read to him. By comparing that with the history of Christ's advent and crucifixion, the coincidence appeared so strange, the facts accorded so exactly with the prophecy, though written many ages before, that he felt the truth forced upon him with a power of demonstration that he could not resist..." "Warn all my friends and companions to a true and sincere repentance while it is called today, before the evil day come, and they be no more. Let them know that sin is like the angels book in the Revelation, it is sweet in the month, but bitter in the belly. Let them know that God will not be mocked; that he is an holy God, and will be served

What is God's Word doing for people in our generation? (<http://blog.gideons.org/2011/01/craig-groeschel-gideon-bible-lifechurch-tv/>)>> "Years ago, there was a Gideon distributing copies of God's Word on a college campus. He placed a copy in the hands of Craig, a young fraternity student who was on a collision course with God... It was through reading that little, green, college Testament that Craig came to know Jesus Christ and accept him as his Lord and Savior... So what became of that young college student? Today, Craig Groeschel is the 43 year-old senior pastor of LifeChurch.tv, the Edmond, Oklahoma-based congregation that Craig started out of a two-car garage in 1996... Through the LifeChurch.tv YouVersion Bible Internet site and mobile phone application that allows users to engage with Scripture in 41 translations in 22 languages, people all over the world can download free copies of the Bible. As of January 2011, the app has reached approximately 13 million downloads. Isn't it amazing to see how much impact a single copy of God's Word can make?"

(<http://blog.gideons.org/2012/08/testimonies-of-how-gods-word-has-prevented-suicide/>)>> "A young woman in Ukraine was in great despair and planned to drown herself. As she walked along the channel, a breeze was blowing and what she thought was a leaf blew up into her face. It turned out to be a page from the Psalms that had been ripped out of a Gideon-placed New Testament. She read about a merciful God and the words gave her hope, so she sought out some Christians and accepted Christ as her Savior. She now shares her testimony in churches."

(http://www.theovision.org/?testimonials\_category=changed-life-stories/)>> "I never wanted to have anything to do with church or Christians", a 40 year old farmer [from Ghana] declared. Midawa now referred to as Paul, was an idol worshiper who loathed the God of the Christians because he felt that God was foreign. For many years, he had been caged in this ideology until he had the encounter of his life when he passed by a Bible listening group session in his village. He said he heard someone talking to him in his own language and warning him strongly against all the ills he was committing. "The voice said that I should not murder, bear false witness or chase another person's wife and those were the exact deeds I was involved in", he said... When the session closed, he asked the leader for the date for the next meeting because he wanted to hear the voice again. When he visited the following week, he heard something different. He realized that the "voice" from the Audio Bible, loved him and was willing to forgive him of all his sins. He accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and personal Savior and has since been baptized. Once a fierce idol worshiper, Midawa has joined a local church and is a staunch member of the Bible listening group. "My prayer is that all who hear my story will turn from their evil ways and pay heed to God's Word", he shared."

Friend, no other resource can give you centuries' worth of endorsement as the Bible. For – the rich or the poor; lord or slave; black, white or brown; man or woman; young or old; wise or simple; believer or infidel; in the prime of life or at death's door – the Bible meets the intrinsic longing of the sincere heart! Are you responding to that longing? Embrace God's healing via His written record. What He has done for others He WILL do for you. Romans 15:4>> "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. May God bless you..."

CAN YOU TRUST THE BIBLE? (PART 5)

What are the FACTS and what are the MYTHS about this age-surviving Book?

♦ WHAT CAN THE BIBLE REALLY DO FOR ANYONE?

Friend, this Book possesses a train of testimonials comparable to no other, whether in their number or the level of satisfaction they express. If the Bible was a mere commodity for sale, the level of positive reviews would be so overwhelming that any prospective customer would have to say, "I've got to get this book!" How do we know this? Because from the very establishment of the books of Scripture, there have been testifiers to their life-enriching, life-transcending power. Contrary to today's advertising, the Bible has never needed any focus group, questionnaire, promotional samples, nor celebrity endorsement. Yet men and women, moved by an inspiration within, could not but testify on record of the goodness of this Book. These were heartfelt; these were not paid for nor staged. Read these witnesses from history to the present day and see how time and time again, without needing to change its content or image, the Bible has satisfied the greatest hungers of the soul to all classes of people...

Martin Luther (1483-1546) – German professor of theology, composer; former Catholic monk turned Reformer after discovering and reading the Bible; became the pre-eminent figure of the Protestant Reformation>> "I felt that I was born again, and that I had discovered a wide and open door, allowing me to penetrate into paradise itself. I viewed the holy Scriptures in a far different light from what I had formerly done, and through this, discovered the true way of everlasting happiness."-Christianity Demonstrated by Experience, pg.97

John Wilmot, Earl of Rochester (1647-1680) – English poet and courtier of King Charles II; former avowed debauchee, former staunch opponent of Christianity; during the last months of his life and final sickness>> "One immediate cause to which [Wilmot] ascribed his conviction, was the fifty third chapter of Isaiah, which Mr. Parsons read to him. By comparing that with the history of Christ's advent and crucifixion, the coincidence appeared so strange, the facts accorded so exactly with the prophecy, though written many ages before, that he felt the truth forced upon him with a power of demonstration that he could not resist..." "Warn all my friends and companions to a true and sincere repentance while it is called today, before the evil day come, and they be no more. Let them know that sin is like the angels book in the Revelation, it is sweet in the month, but bitter in the belly. Let them know that God will not be mocked; that he is an holy God, and will be served in holiness and purity; that he requires the whole man, and the early man.”-Converts from Infidelity, Vol.1, pg.63,66,77-78

John (Count) Struensee (1731-1772) – Danish politician, doctor and courtier of King Christian VII, who, for a short term became prime minister of Denmark; former atheist who sought to overthrow the order of Christianity in Denmark as PM; eventually deposed as PM, arrested and sentenced to death; converted whilst in prison after having the visiting counsels of a minister Munter about two months to his execution>> “...A teacher should prove the Bible to be a divine revelation.. whoever would take only proper time, and was not against the trouble of meditating, could never examine Christianity without being convinced of its truth Every thing is naturally and well connected, and recommends itself to a mind given to reflection. I never found in deistical writings a system so well connected; and, upon the whole, I am inclined to believe that there is no such thing as a regular system of infidelity.”-A Narrative of the Conversion and Death of Count Struensee, pg.89-90

“The more, said the Count, I learn Christianity from Scripture, the more I grow convinced how unjust those objections are which it is charged with.”-Ibid, pg.92

“I now glory as much in Christianity and in acknowledging my former errors, as I then did in treating it with contempt. My resolution, which is founded upon conviction, gives me the surest hope that I, in all circumstances, shall keep to it, and observe its precepts until my end.. I thank God that my peace of mind is likewise a proof of my being not rejected by God. I cannot but persuade myself that although now in my fetters, and near a disgraceful death, I am by far more happy than I was in my former grandeur.”-Ibid, pg.122-123,128

William Miller (1792-1849) – American preacher, author and pre-eminent figure in America’s Second Great Awakening, particularly the Second Advent Movement and its significance between the 1830s and 1840s; former deist (one who believes that God has no active interest in humanity) turned Christian after sincere acquaintance with the Bible>> “I saw that the Bible did bring to view just such a Saviour as I needed; and I was perplexed to find how an uninspired book should develop principles so perfectly adapted to the wants of a fallen world. I was constrained to admit that the Scriptures must be a revelation from God. They became my delight; and in Jesus I found a friend. The Saviour became to me the chiefest among ten thousand; and the Scriptures, which before were dark and contradictory, now became the lamp to my feet and light to my path. My mind became settled and satisfied. I found the Lord God to be a Rock in the midst of the ocean of life. The Bible now became my chief study, and I can truly say, I searched it with great delight. I found the half was never told me. I wondered why I had not seen its beauty and glory before, and marvelled that I could have ever rejected it. I found everything revealed that my heart could desire, and a remedy for every disease of the soul.”-Memoirs of William Miller, pg.66

Charles H. Spurgeon (1834-1892) – prolific English preacher and religious writer, popularly nicknamed the “prince of preachers”; widely regarded and celebrated still today for his oratory and literary works; maintained candid and detailed records of the varied experiences in his Christian walk; felt a hopeless case before his conversion; the scriptures aided his walk>> “From chapel to chapel I went to hear the Word preached, but never a gospel sentence did I hear; but this one text preserved me from what I believe I should have been driven to, – the commission of suicide through grief and sorrow. It was this sweet word, “Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” [Romans 10:13]-The Autobiography of Charles H. Spurgeon, Vol.1, pg. 95

Ellen G. White (1827-1915) – American female author, speaker, missionary; acknowledged today by researchers as the most translated American author, and most translated female author in history; despite early misfortunes depriving her of formal education beyond the 3rd grade, at twelve she found Christ and from then laboured tirelessly in His service to the very last>> “I had often sought for the peace there is in Christ, but I could not seem to find the freedom I desired. A terrible sadness rested on my heart.. I was much encouraged while listening to a discourse from the words, “I will go in unto the king.. . . and if I perish, I perish [Esther 4:16]...These words comforted me, and gave me a view of what I must do to be saved...While bowed at the altar with others who were seeking the Lord, all the language of my heart was “Help, Jesus, save me, or I perish! I will never cease to entreat till my prayer is heard and my sins are forgiven...I felt that the Saviour had blessed me and pardoned my sins..So the rays of the Sun of Righteousness had penetrated the clouds and darkness of my mind, and dispelled its gloom.”-Life Sketches of Ellen G. White, Pg.22-24

George Washington Carver (1863-1943) – celebrated African-American scientist, botanist and inventor; former child slave whose turn to Christianity brought him liberation, education and pioneering scientific skill; made landmarks in agricultural production, maintenance and food innovation; consistently cited Bible religion as his source of inspiration in the sciences>> “In November of that year [1924], Carver delivered a lecture at the Marble Collegiate Church in New York City. As he had often done throughout his illustrious career, Carver took the occasion to attribute his success as a scientist to divine inspiration: “I never have to grope for methods the method is revealed at the moment I am inspired to create something new...“Inspiration,” he wrote, “is never at variance with information; in fact, the more information one has, the greater will be the inspiration.” Criticized for relying on religion, Carver resorted to quoting scripture. He referred to “[St] Paul, the great Scholar,” and quoted lines from the latter’s second letter to Timothy: “Study to show thyself approved unto God, a Workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.” Likewise, he turned to Paul’s letter to the Galatians “For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it; but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.”-G. Kremer, George Washington Carver: A Biography, pg.116

in holiness and purity; that he requires the whole man, and the early man.”-Converts from Infidelity, Vol.1, pg.63,66,77-78

John (Count) Struensee (1731-1772) – Danish politician, doctor and courtier of King Christian VII, who, for a short term became prime minister of Denmark; former atheist who sought to overthrow the order of Christianity in Denmark as PM; eventually deposed as PM, arrested and sentenced to death; converted whilst in prison after having the visiting counsels of a minister Munter about two months to his execution>> “...A teacher should prove the Bible to be a divine revelation.. whoever would take only proper time, and was not against the trouble of meditating, could never examine Christianity without being convinced of its truth Every thing is naturally and well connected, and recommends itself to a mind given to reflection. I never found in deistical writings a system so well connected; and, upon the whole, I am inclined to believe that there is no such thing as a regular system of infidelity.”-A Narrative of the Conversion and Death of Count Struensee, pg.89-90

“The more, said the Count, I learn Christianity from Scripture, the more I grow convinced how unjust those objections are which it is charged with.”-Ibid, pg.92

“I now glory as much in Christianity and in acknowledging my former errors, as I then did in treating it with contempt. My resolution, which is founded upon conviction, gives me the surest hope that I, in all circumstances, shall keep to it, and observe its precepts until my end.. I thank God that my peace of mind is likewise a proof of my being not rejected by God. I cannot but persuade myself that although now in my fetters, and near a disgraceful death, I am by far more happy than I was in my former grandeur.”-Ibid, pg.122-123,128

William Miller (1792-1849) – American preacher, author and pre-eminent figure in America’s Second Great Awakening, particularly the Second Advent Movement and its significance between the 1830s and 1840s; former deist (one who believes that God has no active interest in humanity) turned Christian after sincere acquaintance with the Bible>> “I saw that the Bible did bring to view just such a Saviour as I needed; and I was perplexed to find how an uninspired book should develop principles so perfectly adapted to the wants of a fallen world. I was constrained to admit that the Scriptures must be a revelation from God. They became my delight; and in Jesus I found a friend. The Saviour became to me the chiefest among ten thousand; and the Scriptures, which before were dark and contradictory, now became the lamp to my feet and light to my path. My mind became settled and satisfied. I found the Lord God to be a Rock in the midst of the ocean of life. The Bible now became my chief study, and I can truly say, I searched it with great delight. I found the half was never told me. I wondered why I had not seen its beauty and glory before, and marvelled that I could have ever rejected it. I found everything revealed that my heart could desire, and a remedy for every disease of the soul.”-Memoirs of William Miller, pg.66

Charles H. Spurgeon (1834-1892) – prolific English preacher and religious writer, popularly nicknamed the “prince of preachers”; widely regarded and celebrated still today for his oratory and literary works; maintained candid and detailed records of the varied experiences in his Christian walk; felt a hopeless case before his conversion; the scriptures aided his walk>> “From chapel to chapel I went to hear the Word preached, but never a gospel sentence did I hear; but this one text preserved me from what I believe I should have been driven to, – the commission of suicide through grief and sorrow. It was this sweet word, “Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” [Romans 10:13]-The Autobiography of Charles H. Spurgeon, Vol.1, pg. 95

Ellen G. White (1827-1915) – American female author, speaker, missionary; acknowledged today by researchers as the most translated American author, and most translated female author in history; despite early misfortunes depriving her of formal education beyond the 3rd grade, at twelve she found Christ and from then laboured tirelessly in His service to the very last>> “I had often sought for the peace there is in Christ, but I could not seem to find the freedom I desired. A terrible sadness rested on my heart.. I was much encouraged while listening to a discourse from the words, “I will go in unto the king.. . . and if I perish, I perish [Esther 4:16]...These words comforted me, and gave me a view of what I must do to be saved...While bowed at the altar with others who were seeking the Lord, all the language of my heart was “Help, Jesus, save me, or I perish! I will never cease to entreat till my prayer is heard and my sins are forgiven...I felt that the Saviour had blessed me and pardoned my sins..So the rays of the Sun of Righteousness had penetrated the clouds and darkness of my mind, and dispelled its gloom.”-Life Sketches of Ellen G. White, Pg.22-24

George Washington Carver (1863-1943) – celebrated African-American scientist, botanist and inventor; former child slave whose turn to Christianity brought him liberation, education and pioneering scientific skill; made landmarks in agricultural production, maintenance and food innovation; consistently cited Bible religion as his source of inspiration in the sciences>> “In November of that year [1924], Carver delivered a lecture at the Marble Collegiate Church in New York City. As he had often done throughout his illustrious career, Carver took the occasion to attribute his success as a scientist to divine inspiration: “I never have to grope for methods the method is revealed at the moment I am inspired to create something new...“Inspiration,” he wrote, “is never at variance with information; in fact, the more information one has, the greater will be the inspiration.” Criticized for relying on religion, Carver resorted to quoting scripture. He referred to “[St] Paul, the great Scholar,” and quoted lines from the latter’s second letter to Timothy: “Study to show thyself approved unto God, a Workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.” Likewise, he turned to Paul’s letter to the Galatians “For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it; but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.”-G. Kremer, George Washington Carver: A Biography, pg.116